

Diploma of Project Management

BSB51407 Diploma of Project Management

Course Overview

This qualification reflects the role of individuals who possess a sound theoretical knowledge base and use a range of specialised, technical or managerial competencies to plan, carry out and evaluate their own work and/or the work of a team. Typically people in these roles will have considerable experience in their respective industries or vocational areas and couple an informed perspective of the specific work requirements with their managerial approaches.

The Diploma of Management requires a sound theoretical knowledge base and managerial competencies to plan, carry out and evaluate own work and/or the work of a team.

This development program is offered through face to face delivery with the participant undertaking learning activities through observed performance of workplace duties, class room sessions and workshops.

An initial induction into the program is provided at the time of enrolment when we assess and recognise existing skills the participant may possess. This enables them to receive advanced-standing in the program and allows us to focus on the skills they need to develop.
